“We are forced, then, to the realization . . . that neutral taxation is an oxymoron; that the free market and taxation are inherently incompatible; and therefore either the goal of neutrality must be forsaken, or else we must abandon the institution of taxation itself.”

Murray Rothbard
Economic Controversies

“In short, the portrayal of an egalitarian society is horror fiction because, when the implications of such a world are fully spelled out, we recognize that such a world and such attempts are profoundly antihuman.”

Murray Rothbard
Egalitarianism as a Revolt Against Nature and Other Essays
